WELCOME ADDRESS

AT THE OPENING CEREMONY

Mr. Asare Konadu Yamoah
(Chairman, GIBF)

On behalf of the Organising Committee of the Ghana International Book Fair (GIBF), I welcome everyone to this year's GIBF.

The Ghana International Book Fair has come a long way. Since 2004 when the Book Fair started under the leadership of the Ghana Publishers Association, it has surpassed the various challenges encountered over the years and has demonstrated resilience and adaptability including embracing the changing technological trends in the industry.

We are proud to announce that the GIBF celebrates its 20th edition this year. This year, the GIBF is being held within the Accra World Book Capital programme. Thus, making the fair a special one.

The theme for this year's Book Fair is "Reading to connect minds for social transformation", the same theme as the Accra World Book Capital. This is to deepen the opportunities and enhance the programmes outlined for the year-long celebration. The GIBF undoubtedly has a wider reach and could help promote the celebrations.

We have series of programmes and activities for the next three days, sharing thoughts, knowledge, and opinions with you all.

The Book Fair hosts events such as debates, public speaking, content writing and other such knowledge enhancing activities.

On behalf of the Organising Committee of the GIBF, I welcome all Ghanaian and international exhibitors and visitors to the 20th edition of the Ghana International Book Fair.

The GIBF has been one pillar of the Ghanaian cultural heritage that has offered this country the opportunity and experience for the private sector to make significant impact on the Ghanaian book industry.

Over the years, consistent programmes, and initiatives of the GIBF have featured the Ghanaian book industry in the global pedestal of book industry news.

We believe that the GIBF has proven to be the most appropriate annual forum for the discussion of issues that are critical to the survival of the industry and maintaining a healthy cultural perspective about books, reading, literacy and lifelong learning. That will continue.

Let me also use this opportunity to invite you all to the 5th Ghana International Book Fair Personality of the Year in honour of Mr. Abdourahamane Diallo (Country Director, UNESCO Ghana). This event will be held on Friday August 11, 2023; Committee Hall 1, Accra International Conference Centre.

In conclusion, as the Chairman of the Ghana International Book Fair and President of the Ghana Publishers Association (GPA), I extend our appreciation to the Organising Stakeholders and to all Sponsors and Partners whose support has translated into the existence of this year's Book Fair. We specially thank the Ministry of Tourism, Arts and Culture (MoTAC) for their unflinching partnership support.

Once again, I welcome all of you, especially the distinguished international participants of the Book Fair to this wonderful event and wish you a successful stay.

J'yrens' love affair with entrepreneurship began in his teens when he and his siblings normally sold vegetables, yogurt, etc., at the market. It was fun getting money when someone bought any of their wares. While growing up, it always amused him how people around him were so smart but couldn't create and develop their own space, change their environment, improve their lives for the better, change their own destinies, due to fear, low self-esteem or simply because of what someone had said about them.
