SOME BENEFITS OF GPA MEMBERSHIP

GPA members benefit from strong representation on key publishing issues, both nationally and internationally. Members get first-hand information on activities within the publishing industry. We also provide a forum for the exchange of non-competitive information between publishers and allied organizations, as well as a wide range of free and discounted services, which include:

- Training, workshops, and seminars on matters relating to the book publishing industry
- Stronger bargaining power with stakeholders like the Ministry of Education, Copyright Ghana, Ghana Library Authority, etc.
- Channels for lobbying with the government on industry developments
- Regular briefs on the latest publishing news
- Full Listing on the GBPA's website and entry into the Directory of Members
- Great Networking opportunities (connecting you to the outside world)
- Representation at, as well as assistance with international book fairs. For example, Frankfurt Book Fair, London Book Fair, Cape Town Book Fair, etc.
- Representation on the Ghana Book Development Council, APNET and IPA
- Promoting and facilitating copyright education and copyright awareness campaigns
- And many more.
